

"There are people who talk a good game, and people who get it done. Scott Takeda gets it done. His work is outstanding; his attention to detail is relentless, and he's got a great team surrounding him. He goes out of the way to 'wow' customers, not just please them. And that makes my job so much easier."

~ Dan Nace, Creative Ace (St. Louis), Creative Director ~

Honors and Awards

Over the past twenty years, Scott Takeda has been honored by the most prestigious media organizations in the industry. Most recently, his documentary short "Have You Been Tested?" received a regional Emmy nomination, a national Telly Award and an international WorldMedal from the New York Festivals Film and Television Awards.

Selected honors include:

- Five regional Emmys for Children's Programming, Music Composition, Target Audience Programming and Commercial; plus four additional nominations for Informational Programming, Informational Feature, Commercial and PSA Campaign
- An international Gold Worldmedal, two Silver WorldMedals and a Bronze Worldmedal from the New York Festivals Film & Television Awards, plus three finalist selections for corporate documentaries produced for Cadillac, WDA, and Buick-GMC
- An Associated Press Award for documentary
- Twenty-six national Telly Awards for corporate image, sales video, training, public relations and commercials
- Two national Aurora Awards for healthcare and public service announcements
- Two state Photographer of the Year titles
- A "Best of Class" Gold Key Award from the Business Marketing Association and along with multiple Gold and Silver Key awards for B2B corporate documentaries for BellSouth, Microsoft (MSN) and Morgan Stanley
- Two Gold Pick Awards from the Public Relations Society of America for brochures and copywriting
- Two Gold Leaf Awards from the Colorado Healthcare Communicators for medical documentaries produced for the University of Colorado Hospital
- And seven Awards of Excellence from the Colorado Broadcasters' Association for commercials, public service announcements, advertising promotions and children's programming genuine.

people.

stories.